

“With our streaming online broadcasts, real-time ticket sales, and voice service all running over our MegaPath T1, we’re putting a lot of eggs in one basket. With MegaPath, we are able to get full-featured broadband services at a fraction of the cost of inferior services. This is a huge value to business like ours.”

— Dan Abbate, Executive Director and Owner, Gorilla Tango Inc.

Company Overview

Gorilla Tango, Inc. operates Gorilla Tango Comedy Theatre in downtown Albuquerque and broadcasts live improvisational performances, original films, and musical events on the Internet for paying home viewers. With only 30 full-time and part-time employees, Gorilla Tango also runs a professional improvisation training center and offers corporate team-building, entertainment, and non-profit fundraising services.

Secure Reliability

Fast and secure data is vital to Gorilla Tango's business, which includes online broadcasting, real-time credit card transactions and browser-based accounting.

A MegaPathT1 line provides security, speed, 99.99% guaranteed uptime, and single-point-of-contact support. Now, Gorilla Tango can rely on proven technology to grow their business with no worries about downtime or latency.

The Need for Affordability

By running MegaPath Hosted Voice over their T1, Gorilla Tango makes maximum use of their connectivity investment. They get crystal-clear call quality and call-routing capabilities without the extra costs of a PBX system.

Gorilla Tango slashed their telecom budget by 72% when they switched to MegaPath Hosted Voice and internet faxing. Plus, unlimited long-distance ensures that increased productivity never busts the budget.

Scalable Solution for a Growing Business

Hosted Voice allows multiple offices to share a 1-800 number and enjoy 4-digit dialing between offices. Web-based controls make changes and additions easy.

When the Gorilla Tango headquarters relocates to Chicago, they'll be able to confidently maintain control of the Albuquerque theatre from 1,300 miles away.

Focus on Simplicity

Features like Remote Office and Find Me/Follow Me simplify voice communications and can be managed remotely.

With one company providing all their voice and data communications, Gorilla Tango's IT management is virtually effortless.
