Policy

For each visitor to our Web page, our Web server automatically recognizes only the visitor's domain name, but not the e-mail address where possible. We collect only the domain name of visitors to our Web page. We also aggregate information on pages accessed or visited, user-specific information on pages accessed or visited and information volunteered by the visitor, such as survey responses and/or site registrations.

The information we collect is used to improve the content of our Web page and to notify consumers about updates to our Web site. If you do not want to receive e-mail from us in the future, please let us know by sending us e-mail at the above address.

If you supply us with your postal address on-line you may receive periodic mailings from us with information on new products and services or upcoming events. If you do not wish to receive such mailings, please let us know by calling us at the number provided above. Please provide us with your exact name and address. We will be sure your name is removed from our mailing list.

Persons who supply us with their telephone numbers on-line may receive telephone contact from us with information regarding new products and services or upcoming events. If you do not wish to receive such telephone calls, please let us know by sending us an e-mail at the above address. Please provide us with your name and phone number and we will be sure your name is removed from our telemarketing list.

We do not partner with or have special relationships with any ad server companies.

In the future, we may use customer and visitor information for new, unanticipated uses not previously disclosed in our privacy notice. If our practices change, we will post an updated policy statement to our Web site as a way to notify you of these changes and will provide you with the ability to opt out of these new uses. If you are concerned about how your information is used, you should check back at our Web site periodically.

Customers may prevent their information from being used for purposes other than those for which it was originally collected by calling us at the number provided above.

Upon request, we provide site visitors and customers with access to all information [including proprietary information] that we maintain about them. Requests for this information should be sent to the above e-mail address. Any corrections to this information should also be sent to the above e-mail address.

We always use industry-standard encryption technologies when transferring and receiving user data exchanged with our site

If you feel that this site is not following its stated information policy, you may contact us at the above addresses or phone number, or The DMA's Committee on Ethical Business Practices at mgoldberger@the-dma.org.
