

Skype® for Business Integration

Get More from your Skype for Business Investment

Get Business-class IP Calling Features for your Skype for Business desktop client.

Businesses can fully leverage their Skype for Business investment by integrating MegaPath's mobility-enhanced telephony system into the Skype user application. You get much more than a dial tone. You get an award-winning, full-featured business VoIP phone service with dozens of calling features, such as voicemail transcribed as email and self-service call management capability.

Get More from Skype for Business

- ▶ Click to call internal or external* contacts within Skype for Business and Office 365™ applications. Or, use the Skype dial pad.
- ▶ Use your Skype desktop client and your MegaPath desk phone interchangeably; you can even move an active call from Skype for Business to your desk phone and back.
- ▶ Get more done, in or out of the office, with the advanced calling and mobility features of MegaPath Hosted Voice. Streamline communications with features such as Visual Voicemail with Transcription, one-number calling from any device, and self-service call management.
- ▶ Deliver a superior, enterprise-class calling experience for both users and callers with optional features such as automated attendant/receptionist, hunt groups, toll-free numbers, call recording, and call center.

Advantages

Collaboration. Seamlessly integrate IP telephony capabilities with the Skype for Business user experience.

Savings. Enjoy low start-up costs and affordable calling plans. Savings of 30-50 percent are typical compared to traditional phone systems.

Versatility. Use your Skype for Business client and your MegaPath desk phone interchangeably.

\ Depends on calling plan. Local and National calling included. International calling plans are available. Company-wide shared minute calling plans and competitive metered rates are available. Ask your MegaPath representative for details.*
